MINOR REVISION 25 Jul 2025

Hello and good day,
In the Introduction section, please explain the importance of conducting the study in more detail and cite 1 or 2 similar studies.
In the Methods section, how was the sample size calculated?
The Discussion section should begin with the most important result and finding of the study; this needs to be revised. In addition, points presented in the Introduction do not need to be repeated in the Discussion section.
Thank you.
